Re: Duwamish Tribal Organization's Request for Reconsideration

Dear Mr. Freedman:

On July 24, 2015, the United States Department of the Interior (Department) Assistant Secretary – Indian Affairs (AS-IA) issued a Final Decision on Judicial Remand Against Acknowledgment of the Duwamish Tribal Organization (Final Decision). On April 17, 2019, the Interior Board of Indian Appeals (IBIA) referred the Secretary of the Interior (Secretary) various alleged grounds for reconsideration of the Final Decision that the IBIA found were beyond the scope of its subject matter jurisdiction in the Duwamish Tribal Organization's administrative appeal of the Final Decision. Department regulations governing Federal acknowledgment, set out at 25 C.F.R. Part 83 (1994), state that the Secretary has the discretion to request that the AS-IA reconsider the Final Decision based on issues referred to the Secretary by the IBIA.

I write to inform you that the Secretary has decided not to request reconsideration of the Final Decision on any grounds referred by the IBIA, and is hereby notifying all parties of his decision. The Final Decision is therefore an effective and final agency action pursuant to 25 C.F.R. § 83.11(h)(2).

Sincerely,

Daniel H. Forjani
